

Homeschool Educator Institute

Teaching About the Judicial Branch

Location:

Thomas F. Egleton U.S. Courthouse
111 South 10th Street
St. Louis, MO 63102

Parking is provided by the Judicial Learning Center, Inc. at Stadium West Parking Garage

Questions?

Please contact Rachel Marshall
(314) 244-2410

Rachel.Marshall@ca8.uscourts.gov

For more information about our programs, visit www.JudicialLearningCenter.org

To sign up for our Education and Outreach Newsletter, visit www.moed.uscourts.gov/education-and-outreach-news

Tuesday, August 1, 2017

10:00 AM-2:30 PM

Check-in begins at 9:30 AM

Parking and lunch will be provided

FREE summer institute for homeschool educators. Join the United States Courts and the Judicial Learning Center for a full-day of learning at the federal courthouse.

This workshop will include a live courtroom observation and informative sessions with judges and other legal professionals. NEW content will be added this year, including select sessions from our teacher workshop on founding father Alexander Hamilton.

Participants will:

- Learn about U.S. government, especially the judicial branch;
- Take home a wealth of free resources for instruction;
- Learn about fall field trip opportunities to include the traveling exhibition – “Alexander Hamilton: The Man Who Made Modern America,” which will be displayed at the courthouse in Fall 2017.

If students are of high-school age, they are also welcome to register and attend, with a parent. Sorry, no younger children for this event.

This event is FREE, but registration is required so that complimentary parking, lunch, and materials can be provided.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: by Friday, July 14

To make a reservation, visit:

www.JudicialLearningCenter.org/homeschool-registration

Please take a moment to forward this flyer to your homeschool contacts. Thank you.