Cape Girardeau, July 30, 2018

SEPARATION OF POWERS

FREE SUMMER TEACHER INSTITUTE

MON JULY 30, 2018 | 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Rush H. Limbaugh, Sr. U.S. Courthouse, Cape Girardeau

www.JudicialLearningCenter.org/summer-teacher-institute/

Join the United States Courts for a full day of learning about our system of government. The focus of the institute will be the three branches of government, separation of powers, and checks and balances, all through the lens of the judicial branch.

This event is designed for high school and middle school social studies teachers, and is appropriate for both government and history courses. Teachers will gain practical knowledge, classroom applications, and a variety of resources.

This event is FREE, but space is limited. Registration is required so that parking, meals, and materials can be provided at no cost to participants. Please register early, and no later than June 29.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: Friday, June 29.

To register, visit: www.JudicialLearningCenter.org/summer-teacher-institute/
