

Watch The Court and You: From Suffragist Sashes to Antiwar Armbands and fill out the graphic organizer

<https://youtu.be/GXJ-ks3J-FQ>

	Virginia Minor	Mary Beth Tinker
What social movement was she involved with?
What action did she want to perform legally?
Against whom did she bring a lawsuit?
Which Constitutional Amendment formed the basis for her case?
Ultimately, did the U.S. Supreme Court rule in her favor?
Other notes?

Reflection questions- answer in your own words:

1. Virginia Minor did not get the results she sought in the Missouri state courts nor at the U.S. Supreme Court. How can losing a case have a positive impact?
2. In Mary Beth Tinker's case, the U.S. Supreme Court opinion in favor of the students states "It can hardly be argued that either students or teachers shed their constitutional rights to freedom of speech or expression at the schoolhouse gate." Describe a situation from your life or from current events to which you think this might apply. Why?
3. What is the role of the federal courts in this country?
4. What is meant by the phrase "Rule of Law"?

To learn more about these cases, complete the webquest found at <https://judiciallearningcenter.org/online-learning-resources/>